

Roosevelt Way NE Paving and Safety Improvements Project

Design and pre-construction community outreach

To date, community outreach related to the Roosevelt Way NE Paving and Safety Improvements Project includes:

- Briefing the Roosevelt Business Association (February 17, 2016)
- Briefing the Northeast District Council on project updates and construction preparation (February 4, 2016)
- Briefing the Roosevelt Neighborhood Association on project updates and construction preparation (January 26, 2016)
- Hosting a pre-construction open house (January 25, 2016)
- Sending a project update and open house invitation via postcard to the approximately 9,500 residents and businesses in the project vicinity between I-5 and 15th Avenue NE (January 2016)
- Staffing a booth at the Roosevelt Bull Moose Festival (July 25, 2015)
- Briefing to the Seattle Pedestrian Advisory Board (June 17, 2015)
- Briefing the Roosevelt Business Association regarding project updates (June 3, 2015)
- Staffing a table at the Roosevelt to Downtown High Capacity Transit Open House in Roosevelt (May 19, 2015)
- Staffing a table at the Roosevelt to Downtown High Capacity Transit Open House in South Lake Union (May 18, 2015)
- Providing a project update at the Roosevelt Business Association (March 2015)
- Providing a project briefing at a joint meeting for the Roosevelt Neighborhood Association and Roosevelt Neighborhood Alliance (February 2015)
- Providing a project briefing to the Roosevelt Business Association (February 2015)
- Hosting three project drop-in sessions, including the latest design plans with the protected bike lane extending north to NE 65th Street (January 20, 21 and 22, 2015)
- Providing a project briefing to the Northeast District Council (January 2015)
- Distributing door hangers to immediately adjacent properties with project updates and invitations to the January 20, 21 and 22 drop-in sessions (January 2015)
- Mailing project update letters to the immediate project area, including the plan to extend the protected bike lane to NE 65th Street on the west side of Roosevelt Way NE (January 2015)
- Hosting a project open house (November 17, 2014)
- Meeting with property owners and tenants on the west side of Roosevelt between NE 45th and NE 40th streets in advance of the protected bike lane installation (November 2014)
- Mailing property-specific plans and project impact letters to property owners and tenants along the corridor (October 2014)
- Sending a project mailer to the approximately 9,500 residents and businesses in the project vicinity between I-5 and 15th Avenue NE (October 2014)